

CCA Recognized at StarNet Design Awards

Alexandria, VA May 1, 2008

Daryl Reinke, President, and Ralph Grove, Vice President, were on hand April 25, 2008 to accept the Honorable Mention Award for CCA in the Large Corporation category for the Rockville, Maryland, American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) project, at the StarNet Design Awards presentation in Orlando, Florida. This annual event featured over 90 entries and covered some six categories.

Boggs & Partners Architects was commissioned to design the headquarters for the ASHA as a LEED Gold project. ASHA is the professional, scientific, and credentialing association for members who are audiologists, speech-language pathologists, and speech, language, and hearing scientists.

In an effort to physically embody ASHA's focus, the form of the sound wave was utilized to create a sophisticated yet playful space. Finding a carpet pattern that incorporated a wave for the entrance

"We wanted the floor plan to be visually active, especially in the open office spaces." stated Joanna Parkinson of Boggs & Partners.

CCA has been a member of StarNet since 1998. StarNet Worldwide Commercial Flooring Partnership is the largest commercial flooring cooperative in the U.S. and has 255+ locations here and in Canada.
